VILLAGE ANNEXED

Carson Gardens Voters Reject City Merger in First Illegal Balloting

Lakewood Village, hub of a phenomenal residential and business development which grew in postwar years from 15,000 to 106,000 persons, will officially become a part of the city of Long Beach in about 60 days as a result of an annexation election Thursday. Final tally showed 1323 "yes" and 1243 "no." Only 80 votes separated the "pros" and the "antis" to climax a long, at times bitter, campaign over this "heart" of Lakewood, bounded by Del Amo boulevard, Carson street, Bellflower boulevard and Lakewood boulevard.

But Carson Gardens—that was a different story. Here, in an area bounded by Bellflower boulevard, Centralia street, Palo Verde avenue and Carson street, and inhabited by 5200 persons, 50 per cent of the 2298 voters turned out to defeat annexation by 655 to 537.

Had this section voted to annex, the city of Long Beach would have had to appeal a high court reversal of Superior Judge Frank Swain's ruling that the Carsons Gardens election was illegally held and its results (if annexed) voided.

Slightly more than 53 per cent of the Village's 4767 registered voters cast ballots which carried into Long Beach a County fire station, a large park, chamber of commerce office, two of Lakewood's three business sections and other pioneer institutions.

An estimated 8000 persons live in the Village area.

Annexation of the area to the city will be officially completed in about two months, following canvass of the vote, adoption of an ordinance by the City Council and certification by the California secretary of state.

Long Beach will begin providing police and fire protection as soon as the annexation is official.

Lakewood's third and newest business district, the multi-million-dollar Lakewood Center, is situated in an area north of Del Amo populated by 38,000 persons where petitioning both "for" and "against" annexation is rapidly reaching the boiling point.

Proannexation leaders were unable to secure the signatures of 25% of the registered voters in this area needed to call an election in time to submit them to Long Beach along with seven other areas, and Clark Searle, chairman of the annexation committee, told the Herald American Friday that it would probably take "another 30 days" to secure the names needed to call an election.

Pro forces are allowed six months in which to get them or to discontinue petitioning for a period of at least one year. This would be Nov. 20 in the North Lakewood area.

GOING AHEAD

Meantime Long Beach has announced plans to go ahead with all remaining elections as scheduled, despite court rulings, as was done Friday in the Carson Gardens area.

Annexation

This would mean an election Aug. 27 in West Lakewood, a large area inhabited by 14,000 residents. Should these voters reject annexation, it would be a dead duck, but should they approve, then Long Beach would appeal the previous court ruling to a higher court in an attempt to gain a reversal of Judge Frank Swain's ruling—which declared election results voided—and to secure the annexation of the area to Long Beach.

Re: Proposed annexation of

by Lakewood Blvd., Del Amo
Blvd., Bellflower Blvd. and Carson Street to the City of Long Beach.

Dear Sir:

At the meeting held on April 17, 1953, the County Boundary Commission reviewed the boundary description and map submitted by you with your letter of April 10, 1953, of the proposed annexation of territory to the City of Long Beach.

Upon recommendation of the County Surveyor, slight revisions of the boundary description were made to provide the definiteness and certainty required by Section 55002 of the Government Code. Said revisions were in the wording of the boundary description and made no change in the location of the boundaries as shown on the map.

With these revisions, the County Boundary Commission approved the boundaries of the above proposed annexation. A copy of the approved revised legal description is enclosed for your use.

Very truly yours,

Attention: Mr. Ray E. Lee,

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to your request of April 10, regarding the proposed annexation of inhabited territory bounded by Lakewood Boulevard, Del Amo Boulevard, Bellflower Boulevard and Carson Street to the City of Long Beach, we have reviewed the legal description of the boundaries submitted by the City and find that the description requires some revision to provide the definiteness and certainty intended under the provisions of Section 35002 of the Government Code.

Therefore, we have prepared the attached revised description of boundaries, which we recommend that the Commission approve and forward to the City of Long Beach.

Also, on the enclosed maps showing this annexation we have indicated the location of existing special district boundaries in relation to the proposed city boundary.

All original papers regarding this matter are attached.
